Y.M.C.A. ANNIVERSARY

WILL BE CELEBRATED IN ASSOCIATION HALL

Speeches, Reports and Music Will

Be Order of Evening --

Bishop Nichols Will Speak.

The thirty-third anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association will be celebrated tonight in the Y. M. C. A. building, commencing at 8 o'clock. Elaborate arrangements have been completed to make the event an interesting one. All the rooms of the association will be open for inspection. Among these will be the boys' game room and the quarters of the Engineers' Association which have both been fitted out just recently.

In room 2 and in the hall, the Jubilee exhibit, which was sent to the International Exhibition in Boston last year, will be on exhibition. The exhibit consists of pictures, diagrams, diplomas and other features which bear testimony of the work of the association.

The speakers of the evening will be: Bishop Nichols, T. Clive Davies, the ex-president of the association, who has just retired, and J. H. Atherton the new president.

There will be read before the audience the reports of the general secretary, Henry C. Brown, physical director Fred Young, and chairman of the Educational Committee, Edgar Wood. These reports will give much interesting information and valuable data covering the work of the association for the past year.

A musical program has also been arranged. The Amateur Orchestra, under the able direction of Wray Taylor, will give two selections and Miss Edith Rogers will give a vocal solo.

After the meeting there will be a basketball game played in the gymnasium. This will probably start at about 9 o'clock. The L. L. L.'s and the Aloha will be the contesting teams and will be as follows:

L. L. L.'s. ALOHAS.
Forwards. A. McGurn
Center. T. McGuire
Guards. C. Gomez
George Madeira
R. S. Pierson J. Laing

STANFORD STUDENTS.

A meeting of the Stanford University students in the city was held at the home of Dr. J. S. McGrew Saturday night for the purpose of talking over arrangements for the entertainment of Mrs. Leland Stanford who arrived recently from the Coast. The students having received an invitation to a dinner to be given in their honor by Mrs. Stanford at the Moana hotel some time this week, decided to accept the invitation.

There were in the neighborhood of fifteen Stanford students present at the meeting and it is calculated that there are about twenty-five in all in the city. Previous to the dinner to be given by Mrs. Stanford at the Moana hotel, the students will meet once or twice and practice the songs and yell of their alma mater.

SMUGGLERS WIN.

The baseball game between the Honolulu Athletic Club and the Custom House teams played Saturday afternoon on the Punahou grounds for the benefit of the McKinley Memorial fund was easily won by the Smugglers, the score being 11 to 5 in their favor. The game was especially interesting as a forerunner to the league season games which now will soon begin.

Despite the fact that the Custom House boys had lost their former pitcher, Clark, who has joined the Malilelimas, they were not left in the cold. Kiwa, their new pitcher, putting up a very creditable game. About 500 people witnessed the game.

S. STARBUCK AND HELM BARRIVE

After a trip of fifteen days the ship Thile E. Starbuck arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco with a small cargo of general merchandise, just enough to ballast her. One passenger, Miss Downing, arrived in the vessel.

The four-masted schooner Helene also arrived yesterday morning, twenty-one days from San Francisco with a general cargo. Considerable live stock was brought by the schooner, including three cows, a couple of calves, and a lot of chickens. Captain Cutler is master of the Starbuck. Captain Christensen commands the Helene.

YESTERDAY'S STEAMERS.

Wilder's steamer Claudine, Captain Parker, arrived early yesterday morning from Maui ports with sugar and general freight, mail and passengers. Government Bandmaster Berger and his musicians were included among the latter, as were also a number of Knights of Pythias returning from a pilgrimage to Walluku.

The W. G. Hall of the L. I. S. N. Co., Captain S. Thompson, arrived about 4 o'clock in the morning from Kaula ports with sugar, general freight, mail and passengers.
